AFRICAN LANGUAGE GRAMMARS AND DICTIONARIES (ALGaD) Series
Edited by Adams Bodomo, Ken Hiraiwa, and Firmin Ahoua

Guidelines for Submitting a Grammar or Dictionary Proposal

1. The series aims to publish in each case either (i) a comprehensive grammar, along with a (bilingual) lexicon as an appendix or (ii) a comprehensive monolingual or bilingual dictionary, along with a sketch of the grammar of the language in question as an appendix. Please make sure that your proposal is in either of these categories.
2. A full manuscript should not be submitted prior to submitting a proposal. It can be submitted only after your proposal has been reviewed and approved.
3. A proposal should not be more than 10 pages, excluding appendices.
4. A proposal should include:
  - i. a title of the grammar/dictionary,
  - ii. the name, affiliation, email and postal addresses of the author(s),
  - iii. a short introduction to the target language,
  - iv. a short description/abstract of the grammar/dictionary to be written,
  - v. a list of topics to be covered or tentative table of contents,
  - vi. some information on competing grammars/dictionaries, if any,
  - vii. a timeline for writing the grammar/dictionary,
  - viii. a list of references/bibliography,
  - ix. a short curriculum vitae of the author(s) including information on previous publications, if any, and, optionally,
  - x. a sample chapter or any other information you consider pertinent as an appendix to the proposal.

Send your proposal in email attachment to any or all of the editors listed above, or by post to:
